

Contact: Harry Akoh, PhD
Dean of Social Sciences and Humanities
(404) 756 – 4033
hakoh@atlm.edu

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lights, Camera, Action:
AMSC's 2nd Annual Bring Your Brilliance Short Film Festival

ATLANTA, GA - Atlanta Metropolitan State College (AMSC) is proud to announce its 2nd annual Bring Your Brilliance Short Film Festival, October 29 - 31, 2021. The Bring Your Brilliance Short Film Festival is open to all Georgia residents and has two competition tracts, high school and general. The festival is sponsored by the School of Social Sciences and Humanities and the Digital Media & Entertainment Design Program. Submissions are open August 1 thru October 15, 2021. Cash prizes and awards will be given in the high school and general competitions in the categories of narrative, documentary, and micro films. For more information and a list of rules please visit: <https://filmfreeway.com/AMSCFilmFestival>. Sponsorship opportunities are available.

AMSC's Digital Media & Entertainment Design Program is committed to creating the content creators of tomorrow with classes in digital video production, producing, screenwriting, editing, motion graphics, sound for digital media, and entrepreneurship. Students also take production and post-production courses at the Georgia Film Academy which has classes at Georgia's most prestigious sound stages and production studios. Students may graduate with an Associate of Arts or Bachelor of Arts degree.

Founded in 1974, Atlanta Metropolitan State College is an access institution of the University System of Georgia which educates students from diverse backgrounds by providing affordable, career-focused bachelor's and associate degree programs. The College offers student-centered instruction, civic/community engagement, and quality services that lead to the success of its inter-generational 21st century graduates. For information visit: www.atlm.edu.

###