

Barbara Small Morgan Biological Sciences Scholarship Recipients

NICOLE-LISA WILLIAMS graduated from Atlanta Metropolitan State College in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in Biological Science. From 2015-2016, Ms. Williams performed post baccalaureate research at the University of Georgia under a NIH grant. In 2016, Ms. Williams was admitted to and began the doctoral program at the University of Georgia with a focus on Infectious Disease. Ms. Williams has attended and presented at numerous conferences and co-authored a manuscript in the Journal of Endocrinology. Nicole-Lisa Williams was a recipient of the Barbara Small Morgan Biological Sciences Scholarship while at AMSC.

APRIL BROWN graduated from Atlanta Metropolitan State College in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in Biological Science. From there, Ms. Brown served as a chemistry tutor and facilitator for the Morehouse Upward Bound program. In 2017, Ms. Brown was admitted to and enrolled in the Master's of Public Health program at Fort Valley State University. She is currently in the second semester of her program maintaining a GPA of 3.7. Ms. Brown is actively pursuing an internship with the State Department for the summer of 2018. April Brown was a recipient of the Barbara Small Morgan Biological Sciences Scholarship while at AMSC.

