

Atlanta Metropolitan College Alma Mater

We come here searching for our inner selves.

We come seeking wisdom for our futures;

And we're proud that we chose to drink from the fountain:

The fountain of knowledge,

The fountain that flows here at Atlanta Metropolitan College.

We will long remember the smiling faces we met here.

We thank the Lord above for classmates

And those who guide us onward to our goals.

We come here searching for our inner selves.

We come seeking wisdom for our futures;

And we're proud that we chose to drink from the fountain:

The fountain of knowledge,

The fountain that flows here at Atlanta Metropolitan College.

We hail our Alma Mater, Atlanta Metropolitan College.
