Dr. Steve Wrigley
Executive Vice Chancellor
Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia

Atlanta, GA – Dr. Steve Wrigley, executive vice chancellor for administration for the University System of Georgia (USG), will be the keynote speaker for Atlanta Metropolitan State College (AMSC) Honors Day program.

Dr. Steve W. Wrigley currently serves as the executive vice chancellor for administration for the University System of Georgia. In this role, he oversees day-to-day operations of the System’s budget, facilities, Information Technology Services (ITS), human resources, legal affairs, and strategic planning units.

Dr. Wrigley formerly served as senior vice president for external affairs as well as vice president for government relations for the University of Georgia (UGA). He also served as Director of the Carl Vinson Institute of Government. Prior to his work in the university system, Dr. Wrigley worked in state government in Georgia, including five years as chief of staff to former Governor Zell Miller.

During his career Dr. Wrigley has worked on a number of key issues, including the creation of the state lottery, the HOPE scholarship, and campus consolidations.

Dr. Wrigley earned his undergraduate degree from Georgia State University and his doctorate in history from Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

AMSC president Gary A. McGaha, Ph.D., said. “Dr. Wrigley is an exceptional leader and advocate for public higher education. I am extremely delighted that he will be addressing our students and the community for our Honors Day program.”

AMSC will hold its Honors Day program on Thursday, April 7th, 2016 at 10:15 a.m. in the Physical Education Complex. This student centered program is open to the public.
