

General Education Learning Outcomes (GELO) and Courses for GELO Assessment

Atlanta Metropolitan College graduates will be able to:
Area A – Essential Skills	GELO Courses
A1. write effectively, demonstrating clear thinking, organization and structure, awareness of audience, appropriate writing conventions, language (grammar), and clear thesis development.	ENGL 1101, ENGL 1102
A2. use mathematical operations and concepts to solve problems related to practical situations	MATH 1001, 1101, 1111, 1113 or 2201
Area B – Institutional Requirement (Overlay)
B. think critically, utilizing skills that include deductive and inductive reasoning, recognizing fallacies, as well as analyzing, evaluating and synthesizing information.	AMIR 1001
Area C – Humanities and Fine Arts
C1. identify at least one genre of the fine and applied arts and discuss the social and historical contexts from which the art form emerged.	ARTS 1100, MUSC 1100, MUSC 1101, or THEA 1100
C2. identify at least one mode of communication (oral or written) and utilize appropriate guidelines and conventions in expressing ideas and/or opinions.	COMM 1100, COMM 1110, FREN 1002, SPAN 1002
Area D – Science, Mathematics, and Technology
D. apply the steps and tenets of the scientific method.	BIOL 1101, BIOL 1107, CHEM 1151, CHEM 1211, GSCI 1101, PHYS 1011, PHYS 1111, PHYS 2211
Area E – Social Sciences (Overlay)
E1. U.S. Perspective: Students will discuss historical, political, and cultural aspects that influence the development of the United States.	HIST 2111 and HIST 2112
E2. Global Perspective: Students will compare and contrast the United States to other world cultures, discussing similarities as well as differences among them.	POLS 2401 Global Issues